

EVALUATION DESCRIPTION

In the context of the evaluations, all the necessary measures are taken to evaluate the results of the Project. Below is a summary of the Evaluation Reports for the information of the foreign language public:

1. Formative evaluation (JL)

The JL Report reflected the interim evaluation of the Project in order to give feedback to the Project contributors to improve the quality of its implementation.

2. Pilot Implementation (EL)

The EL Report presents the main findings of the research carried out in the working groups of the Project, but also in users, in order to proceed to the necessary improvement interventions.

3. Final evaluation (IS)

In the IS Report there is a detailed presentation of the deliverables in relation to their theoretical and methodological principles, the implementation schedules of the Project, whereas the results of the final evaluation are included as well.
